Opportunity:

Lochner, a leader in transportation engineering, is currently seeking a mid-level Roadway Design Engineer for our Pittsburgh, PA office.

About You

You are a teammate that is driven to be a true contributor, a professional committed to excellence and growth, and a person who values integrity, respect, and communication. You are looking for a firm that is large enough to win complex, extensive projects, yet small enough to provide the coaching, exposure to a variety of work, and authentic culture you desire. You're interested in making a difference which is why you are seeking a firm that does public sector projects, ensuring your work has a positive impact on the communities in which we live.

Responsibilities:

- Working on the design of roadway, highway and interstates from preliminary to final design
- Develop plans, specifications, reports, and cost estimates
- Coordinate with reviewers and other disciplines to ensure accuracy and quality of work
- Contribute to proposal development
- Directly assist Project Managers and Design Leaders
- Manage and maintain project documentation
- Collaborate with a dynamic team to complete project requirements

Qualifications:

- Bachelor of Science in Civil Engineering, or higher, is required
- 5+ years of roadway design experience
- EIT is required and PE is preferred
- PennDOT roadway design experience preferred
- Experience working with clients such as State Departments of Transportation
- Proficient at using Microstation and/or Inroads
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills

About Lochner

Since 1944, Lochner has maintained a solid focus on planning, environmental, design, right of way, and construction management services within the transportation sector. With more than 30 offices throughout the U.S., Lochner is a client focused, performance driven, and employee owned organization that thrives on turning the toughest roadway, structural, aviation and transit challenges into opportunities for innovation, added value, and impact mitigation. Our professionals are dedicated to our client's vision and understanding their real challenges through partnership. At Lochner you will be encouraged to grow through training and experience that prepares you for advancement into higher responsibilities. Our office participates in giving back to the community through charitable activities. We also provide opportunities for team activities to promote a fun and cohesive workplace.

Lochner is an employee-owned corporation with a comprehensive benefits package that includes:

- 401(k) and ESOP retirement plan
- Flexible spending accounts
- Life insurance, medical, dental, and vision coverage
- Paid time off (PTO)
- Maternity leave program
- Flexible work schedule

EOE/Minorities/Females/Vet/Disability

All positions at Lochner require an applicant who has accepted an employment offer to undergo a background check. Background checks include SSN validation, education verification, employment verification, a criminal check, search against global sanctions and government watch lists, and oral drug test. All employment offers are contingent upon successful results of the background check.